

CONGENITAL ANOMALIES

Volume 41 · Number 1 · March 2001
40th Commemorative Anniversary Edition

CONTENTS

Editorial

- 1 The 40th Commemorative Anniversary Edition

Reviews

- 3 The cause and prevention of human birth defects: What have we learned in the past 50 years?
Robert L. Brent
- 22 Prehistory of the Japanese Teratology Society—The pioneers of teratology in Japan and the founders of the Society—
Yoshiro Kameyama
- 31 Memories of the first five years of the Japanese Teratology Society
Takashi Tanimura
- 47 The First U.S.—Japan Teratology Seminar, 1965
Robert W. Miller
- 51 Hideo Nishimura and Ujihiro Murakami: world's leading teratologists
Thomas H. Shepard
- 53 Dawning of the Japanese Teratology Society—Dr. Ichiro Hayashi (1907-1985), one of the pioneers of teratology in Japan—
Naomasa Okamoto
- 67 Nishimura's collection of human embryos and related publications
Toyoaki Fujimoto
- 72 Toward the prevention of human birth defects: a personal perspective
Kohei Shiota

Special Original Article

- 76 The role of sodium/hydrogen exchange in the teratogenic response to acetazolamide
William J. Scott, Jr., Sheila M. Bell, and Claire M. Schreiner

Others

- 83 Chronology of the Japanese Teratology Society
- 85 Presidents of the Japanese Teratology Society
- 87 Notice to Authors